The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by J. C. Pecor.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your brothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headache and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by J. C. Pecor.

THE Goebel Law is the most fitting monument that GOEBEL could have.

THE Y. M. C. A. Athletic Club of Cincinnati will probably camp this summer at Ke-che-to-non-non Isle, fourteen miles from Mackinac. If they take much Cincinnati beer along they'd best remain indoors. Once away from that isle, and loaded with Moerlein's, they'd never be able to tell a "cop" where they belonged.

IF the Democratic party is determined to make both the head and the tail of its ticket out of military material, would not Colonel BRYAN and General AGUINALDO make a good combination? The former is a talker and the latter is a runner, and the mixture would be more popular in Boston than a Manhattan cocktail at Kansas City next Fourth of July.

THE Manila correspondent of a Paris paper, Le Temps, wrote that if the Filipinos "did not expect help from the Democrats the killing of American citizens and expense of the war would end at once." Every human being who wishes to see our soldiers defeated is opposed to McKINLEY. It is singular indeed what sympathy the Democratic party inspires among the enemies of our country.

THE conspirators to "hang TAYLOR and damn the Republican party" have come to grief some more.

It will be recalled that, in the early days of the conspiracy, TOM CAMPBELL, the bloviator proclaimed that the murderer of GOEBEL was known, and that "he would be arrested just as soon as they could get 3,000 armed men to go to the mountains and get him!"

CAMPBELL'S bombastic declaration was aimed at JIM HOWARD; and now comes this dispatch from a mountain stronghold—

"LONDON, KY., May 9.—JIM HOWARD, accused of firing the shot that killed Senator GOEBEL, came in this morning from his home in Clay county and took the 10 a. m. train at this place for Frankfort, where he goes to surrender himself to the authorities. JIM says he will have no trouble in proving his innocence."

NOW THAT HENRY YOUTSEY, the man who fired the shot from a Martini rifle that killed GOEBEL; and that "Tallow" DICK COMBS, the man who fired the steel bullet from a Krag-Joergensen rifle that killed GOEBEL; and that CALEB POWERS, who fired any old kind of a bullet from a Gatling gun that killed GOEBEL; and that Policeman JIM DAVIS, the officer who killed GOEBEL by the "discharge of his duty;" and that HARLAND WHITAKER, the man who fired the one fatal shot from five revolvers that killed GOEBEL; and that feudist JIM HOWARD, the man who is positively known to have fired the fatal shot that killed GOEBEL;—now that all these "murderers" of GOEBEL are in Jail, it is in order for DEE ARMSTRONG and TOM CROMWELL CAMBBELL and TOM CAMPBELL CROMWELL to tell The Courier-Journal that the man who fired the fatal shot that killed GOEBEL is known and will soon be arrested.

PORTO RICANS are not going to endure such very great hardships after all. There is a big free list upon which they can draw for food, including flour, bacon, codfish, fresh beef, pork, mutton and rice. Not a cent of duty will they pay upon any of these products imported from the United States. Then there is no duty to check their agricultural progress, because sugar making and refining machinery, plows, hoes, hatchets, machetes, coopers' ware for casks and barrels are admitted there free even of the 6% duty. Rough lumber, school furniture, trees, plants, crude petroleum, mineral, carbonated and seltzer waters, root beer, ginger ale, copper, cotton, libraries, drugs, seeds, spices, tea, tapioca, turpentine, wax and a host of other articles are also admitted without the payment of a cent's worth of duty. Some of these were free under the terms of the Dingley Tariff, others under special orders issued by the Secretary of War, and they are all free under the new act.

The Dover Council has ordered the sinking of more wells for public use.

Mrs. E. F. Clay, Jr., daughter of the late Judge J. Q. Ward, died Wednesday near Paris, aged 28.

Rev. W. E. Mitchell, formerly of Carlisle, but now Pastor of the Baptist Church at Owenton, and Miss Mae Forsee will marry at Owenton Tuesday, June 5th.

Lots More Proof Like This, and It Is All From Maysville People.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating of it." If any city or town in the Union has sufficient proof on the following subject it is Maysville. Genuine merit is tinding its reward in the hearty indorsation of local citizens. When people right here at home, friends and neighbors of our readers, give a statement like the following for publication it is proof convincing for the most skeptical.

Read this testimony:

TRIED TO SELL GEMS.

Diamonds Valued at $16,000 Were Found on a Man Arrested at Lexington, Ky.

Lexington, Ky., May 11.—A stranger having in his possession what he claimed to be $10,000 worth of diamonds was arrested here, after having attempted to dispose of a part of them to several Lexington men. He is a young man, tall and of heavy build, with rather a pleasing face and address. He wanted $6,000 for a portion of the gems, and was negotiating with a local money lender when the police, who had received the tip, rushed in and took possession of the goods.

He registered on Tuesday at the Phoenix hotel as J. F. Wilbert, of San Francisco, his wife accompanying him.

Was a Winner Again.

Louisville, Ky., May 11.—Just a week ago Lieutenant Gibson galloped home an easy winner of the Kentucky Derby, and his share of the stake was $5,000. He made Owner C. H. Smith, of Chicago, $3,500 richer by winning for him the Clark stakes at one and one-eighth miles. He had to carry 127 pounds—a lot of weight for a 3-year-old this early in the season—but he did it and did it like a race horse. His performance was all the more creditable in that he equaled the track record for the distance—1:54 flat—which has been held by Pearl Jennings, 4 years old, with 76 pounds up, since 1883.

ON TO PRETORIA.

Lord Roberts is Expected to Reach the Transvaal Capital Within Two Months.

ANOTHER ADVANCE MOVEMENT MADE.

He is Now Reconnoitering in the Vicinity of Venters, Where the Hilly Country Begins Again.

The Advance of Gen. Rundle and Gen. Brabant Is Being Fired On —A Battle Is Imminent East of Thaba N'Chu.

London, May 11.—Members of the house of commons were freely betting in the lobbies last evening that Lord Roberts would be in Pretoria in two months. The ministerialists are building confident hopes upon the comprehensive plans he had communicated to the war office. Predictions are definitely made that he will be in Kroonstad next Monday, and it is believed that his advance is already reconnoitering in the vicinity of Veaters, where the hilly country begins again.

Beyond Kroonstad is an intricate and difficult country, and if the Boers should elect to fight, it is possible they could check the progress of the British until Lord Roberts' numerous cavalry had had time to ride around their flank and threaten their rear.

From 15,000 to 20,000 is the highest estimate of the Boers under the post command of Gen. Botha, who is said to have 46 guns. Gen. Botha and Gen. Dewet are reported to have quarreled. Lord Roberts is pressing hard after this force with 35,000 men and 140 guns, and 20,000 more men are easily available.

Lord Roberts' concise summaries of results are not supplemented by any up-to-date press telegrams. The correspondents are confined in their narratives to events two or three days old, so far as Lord Roberts is concerned.

President Steyn, with 10,000 men, is reported to have been east of Thaba N'Chu Thursday noon, and a battle was then imminent. The advance troops of Gen. Rundle and Gen. Brabant were being fired on.

According to advices from Durban dated Thursday, Gen. Buller's army is "showing activity," but a complete news embargo is imposed upon the correspondents with him.

Parties of Boers are still holding the mountains adjacent to Springfield. New Zealand scouts burned the homestead of a farmer named Greyling, in whose house arms were found at Deering.

During a concert for the relief of the sufferers from the Ingogo works explosion, given Saturday evening at Pretoria in the Gaiety theater, the doors were suddenly closed and every man in the audience was commandeered. All the horses were taken from the conveyances outside.

President Kruger has released the Daily Mail correspondents, Messrs. Hallowell and Hofmeier.

NO SERIOUS RIOTING

The Street Car Strike in St. Louis Is as Far From a Settlement as Ever.

St. Louis, May 11.—The feature of the day in the street railway strike was the conference between Gov. Stephens, the members of the executive committee of the local street railway employes' association and the officers and attorneys of the transit company, for the purpose of ascertaining if some sort of an amicable understanding could not be arrived at. The conference lasted for several hours, but at its conclusion Gov. Stephens said that nothing had been accomplished. The strikers' officials were willing to arbitrate, provided the proposition to do so came from the railway company. The railway officials refused to entertain any such proposal, stating that they had nothing to arbitrate.

There were no riotous demonstrations. The Suburban Co. operated its system under police protection without interference, and was patronized liberally by the public. The transit company ran two cars over one branch of its system, but attempted to carry no passengers. The cars were guarded by police and, as in the case of the cars on the Suburban system, were not molested.

Another death as a result of the strike occurred last night. As Flora Siegfried, a young woman, was crossing Wash street, carrying an infant in her arms, she was hit on the head with a brick that had been hurled at a passing car on the Suburban system. Her skull was fractured and she died shortly after being carried to the city hospital.

MORE BOLOS DEAD

The Philippine Insurgents Have Suffered a Very Heavy Loss at Tabako City.

BOLOMEN ATTACKED THAT PLACE

A Force of 500 Insurgents Attacked Twenty-Five American Scouts But Were Routed.

Americans Lost Two Killed, and in Another Engagement Two More Were Killed and Eleven Were Wounded—A Town Sacked.

Manila, May 11.—The insurgents have suffered a heavy loss at Tabako, near Legaspi, province of Albay, Luzon. Two hundred riflemen and 800 bolomen were preparing to attack the town, and Capt. Lester H. Simons, with a company of the 47th volunteer regiment, advanced to meet them, and killed many.

The insurgent leader, a native priest, was wounded and captured after his horse had been shot under him.

A force of 500 insurgents attacked 25 scouts of the 48th regiment near San Jacent, province of Pangasina, on Monday, but were routed by the scouts, ten of their number being killed. The Americans lost two killed.

On April 26 the rebels burned and sacked the town of Treven, near Bulcin, murdering natives who were friendly to the Americans and two Spaniards. The Americans killed 37 of the insurgents.

On the same date Maj. Andrews, with two companies of troops, attacked Gen. Mojleo's stronghold near Primuce, Leyte Island. Mojleo's forces has brass cannon and plenty of ammunition, but after three hours of fighting the insurgents fled. Their loss is not known. The Americans lost two killed and 11 wounded. They destroyed the enemy's rifles, powder and stores.

BARKER AND DONNELLY.

Candidates for President and Vice President Named By the Middle-of-the-Road Populists.

Cincinnati, May 11.—The middle-of-the-road populists nominated Wharton Barker, of Pennsylvania, for president, and Ignatius Donnelly for vice president. For a time during the day's session of the convention it appeared as if nothing could prevent a complete disruption of the plans so carefully wrought out by the men who separated themselves on February 19 last at Lincoln, Neb., from the fusionist element of the populist party. Since Tuesday, when Wharton Barker, who had been selected by the initiative and referendum plan to head the party ticket in 1898, a steady current against the out-and-dried choice of Barker and Donnelly had almost destroyed the foundation upon which that ticket stood. Former Congressman Howard, of Alabama, had suddenly become the idol of an apparently winning number of the delegates, and he clinched his claims on the presidential nomination through his eloquent address in assuming the temporary chairmanship of the convention on Wednesday.

As the time drew near for the nominations word was quietly passed, confirmed by Mr. Howard himself, that the Barker following would bolt the convention should their leaders be turned down. Howard took the only course for the restoration of harmony. He withdrew his name. Nevertheless, when the roll call was completed on the first ballot Howard was at the top of the column—only a few short of the nomination. On the second ballot Howard's plainly stated desire for harmony took effect, and the 70 votes which went to Donnelly on the first roll call were gradually worked over to the Barker column, it being understood that Mr. Donnelly's name had been withdrawn, although the Minnesota delegation protested against the withdrawal.

Without a dissenting voice Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, was declared the choice of the convention.

The platform demands the initiative and referendum; the public ownership of all railroad, telegraph and telephone lines, coal mines, etc.; prohibiting monopolizing of lands and reclaiming by the government of all lands held by railroads and aliens; an absolute paper money, based upon the entire wealth and population of the nation; free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1; demands an inheritance tax, and the election of president, vice president, federal judges and United States senators by direct vote of the people.

The national central committee met and organized as follows: Chairman, Jo A. Parker, Louisville; secretary, J. F. McBride, grand rapids; treasurer, Milton Park, Dallas. It was decided to establish the national headquarters in Chicago at as early a day as practicable, and to put in operation the plan of organization adopted by the convention. It was decided to circulate pamphlets with this plan of organization at once, and have as many reports as possible from the different localities and states at the next meeting of the national committee.

Denver, Col., May 11.—The republican convention selected the following delegates and instructed them for McKinley: Senator E. O. Wolcott, D. H. Maffet, W. S. Stratton and David B. C. Brown.

CROP CONDITIONS

Report of the Agricultural Department For the Month of May.

WINTER WHEAT WAS BADLY DAMAGED

The Area of Acres Is More Than Three Million Less Now Than Was Sown Last Fall.

The Reduction Is Due to the Winter Killing and the Ravages of the Hessian Fly—The Condition of Other Crops.

Washington, May 11.—The monthly report of the agricultural department is as follows: Returns to the department of agriculture, made up to May 1, show the area under winter wheat in cultivation on that date to have been about 29,585,000 acres, or 3,563,000, or 11.8 per cent, less than the area estimated to have been sown last fall. The reduction in acreage in the principal states, owing to winter killing and the ravages of the Hessian fly, is as follows: Indiana, 1,009,000; Ohio, 905,000; Michigan, 317,000; Pennsylvania, 158,000, and Illinois, 157,000 acres.

For the area remaining under cultivation the average condition on May 1 was 88.9. While this average is 6.2 points above the mean of the average of the last ten years, and has been exceeded only three times in 15 years, it must be remembered that the acreage plowed up, out for forage (except in California, where it is not yet definitely ascertainable) or otherwise abandoned has been entirely eliminated. The high averages of condition reported last month for Kansas, Missouri, Texas and other more or less important wheat-producing states that have escaped the ravages of the fly have been fully maintained, and on May 1 nearly one-half of the entire winter wheat acreage remaining under cultivation reported a full normal or still higher condition.

The average condition of winter rye on May 1 was 88.5, as compared with 85.2 on May 1, 1899, 94.5 on May 1, 1898, and 89.7, the mean of the May averages for the last ten years. Pennsylvania and New York, with 12.1 per cent of the total winter rye acreage of the country, report conditions 11 points and 4 points, respectively, below their ten-year averages. Kansas, which ranks third in the scale of acreage, reports the high average condition of 107, the highest average reported on May 1 of which there is any record.

The average condition of meadow mowing lands on May 1 was 90.8, against 84.9 on May 1, 1899, 92.9 on May 1, 1898, and 91.3, the mean of the May averages of the last ten years.

The average condition of spring pasture was 91.3, against 83.5 on May 1, 1899, 91.2 on May 1, 1898, and 90.9, the mean of the May averages of the last ten years.

Spring plowing is more or less late in almost every state in which its condition is a matter of any especial significance. The only notable exceptions are Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri and Arkansas. The work already done in the country at large is estimated at 68.4 per cent. of the total contemplated, the proportion usually done by May 1 being about 75 per cent. of the whole. In South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas the work is later than in any year for which records are available.

In consequence of the almost, if not entirely, unprecedented backwardness of the season, the statistician is unable to make the usual preliminary estimate of the new average of cotton.

WILL MAKE AN ULTIMATUM.

Street Car Traffic in Kansas City, Mo., May Be Tied Up By a Strike.

Kansas City, Mo., May 11.—Street car traffic in the two Kansas Cities may be tied up by a strike within another 24 hours unless the Metropolitan Street Railway Co. meets the demands of a committee of its employes. The committee waited on the officials of that company to demand recognition of their union, formed recently, and 20 cents an hour to all conductors, motormen and gripmen. President C. L. Holmes was not at his office, and the committee will call again, but as that official had previously emphatically stated he would see the system tied up before he would recognize the union, an amicable settlement is not likely.

The demand carries with it the threat of a strike, but Harry Bryan, of Cleveland, who is in charge of the union as national organizer, says a strike will be avoided if possible. Mr. Bryan said that the recognition of the union was the foundation of the demands of the street car men.

"If we get that," he said, "the men will be able to manage the rest themselves. We do not ask for the discharge of men who do not belong to the union."

The Metropolitan Co. controls all save one short line in the two Kansas Cities, and a strike would involve 1,600 men.

Utah Delegates for McKinley.

Salt Lake, Utah, May 11.—The republican state convention elected the following delegates to the national convention at Philadelphia: G. M Hanson, C. E. Loose, Thomas Kearns, George Sutherland, Heber M. Wells and Arthur Brown. They were instructed for McKinley.

THAT POSTAL EMBEZZLEMENT

The Military Authorities and the Department of Posts Trying to Solve the Problem.

Havana, May 11.—Apparently no jealousy whatever exists between the military authorities and the department of posts. On the contrary, Gen. Wood and Mr. Rathbone, director of posts, are working in complete harmony, and the special agents of the postal department and the division are striving together to solve the problem of the alleged embezzlement.

Gen. Wood and Mr. Rathbone have had frequent interviews daily, and it has now been decided not to make any more arrests at present.

The feeling is that additional information can be obtained without resorting to that plan, and the suspected men can not leave the island. It is denied that the person who has given evidence to the authorities has made any statement tending to convict himself, but his testimony will be sufficient to convict others. It is also believed that there are others desirous of conferring with the authorities, but information is difficult to get, and both the military authorities and the postal department feel that it would be injudicious to give out further details for publication at present.

Will Make Information Public.

Washington, May 11.—The postmaster general had no comment to make on the cable dispatch from Havana concerning the alleged confession of one of the men implicated in the postal frauds. He said that if any information in regard to it was received from Director of Posts Rathbone, it would be made public.

The post office officials are working on a statement as to the number of stamps furnished to Cuban offices, but it probably will not be completed for some days.

Neely Claims to Be Innocent.

Muncie, Ind., May 11.—Charles F. W. Neely, accused of embezzling Cuban postal funds, said: "Just wait until you get the facts in the case. I am all right and not the least bit anxious at the outcome. I have done no wrong and am confident of being vindicated. It will all be fully explained in due time. I don't want my friends to worry about me. My accounts are square and I have committed no crime."

Official Investigation Ordered.

Wabash, Ind., May 11.—Mrs. A. I. Lawshe, wife of Deputy Auditor Lawshe, of the post office department at Washington, received a telegram from her husband saying he had been ordered to Cuba to take charge of the financial department of the Havana post office and ascertain the extent of the alleged defalcation of C. F. W. Neely, of Muncie.

MEETING OF BAPTISTS.

Thousands of Visitors From All Parts of the South Are Now in Hot Springs, Ark.

Hot Springs, Ark., May 11.—Thousands of visitors from all parts of the South and many from the north are here for the Southern Baptist convention. The meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union auxiliary to the Baptist convention was held. The meeting was addressed by Dr. H. T. Moorehouse, of New York.

The American Baptist Educational society held its twelfth annual meeting. The report of the executive board shows that since the last report 11 grants have been made to 10 institutions.

The following officers were elected: President, Nathaniel Butler, M. D., of Maine; vice presidents, H. W. Boatwright, Ph. D., of Virginia, and A. Gaylord Sloenm, LL. D., of Michigan; recording secretary, H. B. Groz, D. D. of Massachusetts; corresponding secretary, H. L. Moorehouse, D. D., 11 Fifth avenue, New York city; treasurer, E. V. Cary, of Mont Clure, N. J.; auditor, G. W. Murray, of New York.

FUSION POPULISTS.

W. J. Bryan Was Nominated for President and Charles A. Towne for Vice President.

Sioux Falls, S. D., May 11.—The national populist convention concluded its session at 1 o'clock this morning and adjourned sine die after nominating Hon. W. J. Bryan for president and Hon. Charles A. Towne for vice president. The nomination of Mr. Towne was only accomplished after a struggle of several hours' duration, in which an effort was made to have the question of the nomination of a vice presidential candidate referred to a committee to confer with the democratic and silver republican parties in their national conventions. A motion to this effect was defeated by a vote of 268 to 492.

Both candidates were nominated by acclamation, but before the result was reached various candidates were placed in nomination and their names successively withdrawn. All nominations were accomplished amid scenes of enthusiasm.

These Two Chapters in the Political History of Kentucky.

Louisville Evening Post.

Mr. Culton, in his testimony, tells of preparation for trouble pending the Berry-VanMeter contest in the House. That the Republicans should prepare for trouble on such an occasion is not surprising when we remember the scenes enacted in the Legislature of 1886 when William Goebel was its leading spirit.

That Legislature was a tie. From ten to fifteen Democrats refused to vote for Mr. Blackburn, making his election impossible.

Mr. Blackburn determined at all hazards to prevent the election of anyone, Democrat or Republican. It was proposed to elect Mr. Henry D. Martin, one of Mr. Blackburn's most faithful supporters, though a sound Money Democrat, and Mr. Blackburn treated the suggestion with contempt.

II.

There were various contests before the House, which was Republican. Whenever the House voted to unseat a Democrat the Senate selected some Republican for slaughter. Mr. Goebel boasted of this policy, and in the last campaign, in his speech at Versailles, we believe, Mr. Goebel said:

"I have a right to tell you that during that contest nobody complained of me except the Republican party. When the Republican membership in the House, under the lead of W. Godfrey Hunter, ousted the Democratic Representative, Moses Kaufman, who had been elected by nearly 2200 votes, for the purpose of creating a majority for the Republican candidate, electing Hunter, within three minutes I offered a resolution in the Senate which ousted the Republicans, James and Walton, from their seats and re-established that tie in the General Assembly. I am that same sort of a Democrat now."

These three minute expulsions naturally aroused intense bitterness. They were irregular and purely arbitrary, made not under the law, but beyond the law. They had no binding effect, but they were backed up by a display of force, and finally by actual violence, which established in the Legislature a reign of terror. The actual situation was graphically described by Governor Bradley, when he appeared before the Senate committee, and denied its jurisdiction, when it met to pass on the Governor's action in calling out the militia. Governor Bradley said:

III.

"With the affidavits of the two presiding officers and others, and uncontradicted facts appearing to me from other sources, showing that an actual assault had been committed upon one claiming to be a member of your body by persons who were not clothed with legal authority; that a Senator, concerning whose eligibility and right to perform his duties there were no questions, while attempting to enter the joint session was rudely jerked aside by a pretended officer; that constant threats and repeated attempts to intimidate your members were being made; that the police and Sheriff's posse, although besought and advised to keep the peace, had failed to take necessary steps to do so; that an attempt was about to be made by armed and desperate men to seize the Capitol, and with newspapers, irrespective of party, for several days before, insisting that the persons and lives of members of the General Assembly were at the mercy of dangerous and irresponsible men, I say with all these things appearing, I could not have acted otherwise without being false to duty and false to my oath of office. My action did not disturb or embarrass the members of the General Assembly, in the great and important business of legislation." On the contrary, it prevented them from being disturbed or embarrassed. No member has been arrested, menaced or disturbed, but my action has prevented members from being 'menaced or disturbed.'"

Further on in his statement Governor Bradley said:

"I did not act hastily in this matter. It was not my wish to see the name of the Commonwealth stained by a necessity which demanded such action. I begged the local authorities to preserve the peace, and advised them fully what their duties were. I talked freely with the presiding officers of each House and took their affidavits, and was assured by them that no effort was being made by the local authorities to preserve the peace, and even after all this, did not act until informed that it was the purpose of this lawless element to take possession of the Capitol."

IV.

Last January this same lawless element was in Frankfort, under the same lawless loaders, armed and menacing the Legislature. Before the election all manner of threats had been made against the Republicans. Mr. Baker, an anti-Goebel campaigner, had been waylaid in Cincinnati by three men and nearly beaten to death. Mr. Blakley, a correspondent of The Evening Post, had been similarly treated. Open and covert threats were made against Democrats who dared defy the Goebel leaders. Menaces were conveyed under the form of argument or protest, and more than one man whose vote was necessary to decide some question at one or at another stage of the conspiracy was approached by some pretended friend and advised to vote with the conspirators in order to prevent trouble.

This was the situation in January, and Mr. Culton tells how the Republicans proposed to protect their Representatives; how they intended, if necessary, to resist force with force.

It was this determination and the steps taken to give it effect that The Enquirer and The Courier-Journal have attempted to distort into a conspiracy to murder members of the Legislature by the wholesale in order to give the Republicans a majority in the House. Such a story was put by these libelous newspapers into the mouth of Culton. Mr. Campbell tried to commit Mr. Culton to that story and failed ignominiously. Here is the cross-examination of Culton by Campbell:

V.

Q—Wasn't it arranged by you with the men that you were bringing here that there was part of them to go into the lobby of the Senate while in session, and for some one to raise a row or fight, and then kill enough Democratic members, or Goebel, to leave the Republican party in the majority? A—There positively was not.

Q—Was there any such matter as that talked to you or in your presence at any time? A—No, sir; I don't know that I ever heard about it.

By Mr. Ramsey—By whom?

Q—The witness is doing very well; let him answer it.

Objected to.

By the Court—Well, for the present I will have to overrule the objection.

A—Well, sir, if I heard the matter of going into the Senate and killing Senator Goebel in your presence or members, I don't just recall it now at this time.

Q—Well, I wish you would think about it; it is important. Don't you know, Mr. Culton, that that was discussed—that that was the purpose of the armed men being brought here? Take your time; I don't want to hurry you. A—It was not discussed with me.

Q—Well, in your presence? A—No, sir; not about going into the Senate.

Q—Where were they to go in; was anybody to be killed; if so, where was it to be done?

Objected to on the ground that the charge is the killing of Senator Goebel.

By the Court—I think you must designate somebody.

Q—Was there anyone to be killed, members of the House of Representatives?

Objected to and overruled.

A—No, sir; I never heard anyone specify about killing anyone of them.

Q—I am not asking you any special one, but anyone of the Democratic members? A—I never heard it specified to kill anybody.

Q—Did you never say that to anybody, Mr. Culton? A—I said this, sir, that I heard the matter discussed, but not in the way you ask it.

Q—Pardon me for asking it wrong; put it in the way you understand it? A—Well, I don't know that I just—I could not say that I heard it discussed about the killing of the members of the Legislature—that is enough of them to make a majority.

Q—How is that? A—No, I could not say that I heard the members of the Legislature or any of them specified to be killed; I could not say I understood it that way.

Q—I asked you a moment ago if you didn't state that to a party in this city. I want you to take your time and think, and tell me what you do know about that particular branch of the subject? A—Well, sir, I said, if I remember, that about the time that Berry's contest was to be voted on as to his seat in the House, that there was a meeting that if he was voted down he was to refuse to give up his seat and that his friends were to tie there to back him up in that, but as to the discussion, I don't just remember. I don't think I said anybody was to be killed, but anyway they were not to quit if he was not to give up his seat, unless he wanted to.

Q—Was it, or was it not, discussed in your presence, or with you, or if not with you, then in your presence, that a row was to be raised in the Senate, and that when the row was raised the Republicans were to keep their seats, and the Democrats, as they rose up were to be shot down? A—That was not discussed in my presence.

Nothing of that nature? A—No, sir.

Q—Nothing of a semblance to that? A—No, sir.

Q—Nothing of the kind? A—No, sir, it was not; no, sir, I am positive of that.

Q—This matter in the House, do you say that it was not discussed that somebody was to be killed? A—I don't think it was said. I don't just remember what it was.

Q—You don't remember what, about that point, Mr. Culton? A—I don't remember that I ever heard of killing anybody, because I don't think I heard anyone go into details of what would happen.

Q—By backing Berry up, and keeping his seat, what do you mean he was to do—were the arrangements by which he was to be sustained? A—Well, his people would just stand to him and see him out in his seat. I didn't go into details as to what would happen at all, sir.

Q—Who had the talk about that matter? Who was it that made the arrangements, or any kind of arrangements, with you? A—There were quite a number of them talking about it at one time, and afterward it was decided that we were going to seat Berry anyhow. I remember that at the time; but afterward it was said Berry would be seated anyhow, and so some of them said—I think Mr. Finley said—there was no need to have any trouble, that Berry would be seated anyhow.

And to have no trouble about it at all? A—And have no trouble.

Q—And then do I understand you, the project of killing anybody in the House was given up? A—I never said there was any project of killing anybody.

Q—Do you say that that was not discussed? (Objected to.) A—I said, as far as killing anybody, I never heard that discussed; that I heard it discussed that Mr. Berry was to retain his seat, no matter what it took; but as to the discussion of killing anybody, I don't know that anybody was singled out—anybody about being killed.

Q—I didn't ask you if any particular person was singled out. I mean generally, was anybody? A—No; I do not. I don't remember any more at this time.

VI.

We reproduce this testimony here to show into what desperate straits the newspapers are driven who have been publishing broadcast, with illustrations, the false confessions and the fake stories gathered from the gutter by their correspondents.

We reproduce Culton's testimony in its historical setting that the public may understand fully the situation, the preparations made to meet an emergency, and the previous acts of violence committed and threatened by the Democrats, and in the success of which measures they have since gloried.

In our judgment, it would have been better to have done as the Republicans in 1896 did; appeal to the Governor for protection, and solely on that protection; it would have been better to have done as Governor Bradley did; order out the militia to preserve the peace, and abide by that action. But the results in 1896 were not so successful as to shut the party up to that program. The conspirators succeeded in their purpose in 1896, and it was natural enough that the Republicans in 1899 should say: "We will adopt the tactics of our enemy and bring our armed partisans here to meet theirs." It was natural, though it was not wise, perhaps. As a matter of fact, it came to nothing. The independent Democrats were overawed or intimidated. The regularly elected member, Berry, was expelled and the usurper VanMeter was put in his place in order to get one more of the votes necessary to unseat Taylor.

It was a vote obtained by fraud, but when the seat came the fraudulent member was seated; the regular member departed, and again fraud triumphed without any forcible resistance having been made.

"I suffered over two years with Indigestion and Nervous Dyspepsia, unable to eat or sleep. I tried several physicians and different remedies, but they only helped me for a short time. A friend advised me to take Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken three boxes, and am now feeling better than I have for two years. Have a good appetite, sleep well and have none of the symptoms of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, while I have gained ten pounds in weight within a couple of months. I am taking pleasure in recommending Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure wherever I can, and several of my friends are taking it with marked results."—L. A. Arnold, Linn.
